

Hardware Installation: Workforce Management Timeclocks

Hardware Installation Project

- People Force provide the service through a partner network
- Proven experience in the installation of various clocking hardware devices
- Centrally based with engineers located across the UK
- People Force project manage the whole installation process effectively providing a single point of contact and project consistency

Hardware Installation Process

- People Force manage the whole installation process including resource booking and liaise with sites
- Dead on Arrival (DOA) terminal testing for new devices undertaken by engineers prior to the delivery to each site
- Completion of remote site surveys to assess onsite specifications and technical requirements
- Assign the correct level of Installation Engineer for the site i.e. is it a plug and play installation or is electrical/network cabling required
- Commissioning of each clocking device
- Handover of the configured/installed device whilst onsite

Hardware Installation Process

